To transfer securities from the donor’s broker to the Children’s Grief Center of New Mexico’s broker, the donor should provide his/her broker the following information:

1. Name of security and number of shares to be transferred
2. Donor’s account number from the desired share account
3. The Children’s Grief Center of New Mexico account information:
   - Wells Fargo Brokerage
   - The Children’s Grief Center of New Mexico, Inc.
   - Account # 31200064
   - DTC# 0141
4. The Children’s Grief Center of New Mexico broker information:
   a. Wells Fargo Advisors
      - MAC H0004-014
      - P.O. Box 66535
      - Saint Louis, MO 63166-9954
      - 1-800-TRADERS (1-800-872-3377) (Wells Fargo Brokerage Services)
5. Intended Purpose of the donation:
   a. Name of organization, program or event
   b. Date transfer to be completed

Please also send this information to the Children’s Grief Center of New Mexico via email: Jade Richardson Bock, Executive Director at jade.bock@childrensgrief.org OR via mail: Children’s Grief Center of New Mexico, Attn: Jade Richardson Bock, 3001 Trellis Drive NW, Albuquerque, NM 87107.

Once the stock donation is received by the Children’s Grief Center of New Mexico, an acknowledgement will be sent to the donor for income tax purposes.

Please note: Pursuant to IRS guidelines, the value of the stock donation will be based on the average of the high and low price of the stock on the date the stock is received at Wells Fargo.

What is your impact?
Here are some comments from our families:

“Feeling sad doesn’t fell so bad when you are not alone. That’s why I love coming here.” ~ Girl, age 9, mother died in a car accident

“I like that I am around other kids that have gone through the same thing.”
~ Boy, age 10, stepdad died

“I like to do things to help remember my mom.”
~ Girl, age 6, mom died of cancer

“It makes me feel safe and I can have fun again.”
~ Boy, age 12, cousin died of suicide

“I felt very hopeless and sad before I found CGC. I love this place and our group. I am very grateful to the Grief Center.” ~ Mom, age 37, husband